To keep things fair for everyone, we have established some terms and conditions that must be adhered to. These are supported by the NUPSA Gift Cards & Vouchers Policy.

Eligibility:

- You must be a current NUPSA member (currently enrolled in Postgraduate study at the University of Newcastle) to enter giveaways and/or to receive a gift card or voucher.
- You are only able to enter each competition once; your first registration will be used, and any duplicate registrations deleted.
- Any NUPSA member that is accused of engaging with fraudulent conduct relating to or attempting to tamper with competition outcomes may face disciplinary action under section 4.9 of the NUPSA Constitution.
- Participants will not be able to register prior to the competition opening and late participants will not be able to register after specified closing time.
- For some giveaways there will be a required attendance and or participation requirements in addition to standard registration- these will be clearly stipulated in any advertisement of the giveaway and on the registration form. Failure to meet attendance/participation requirements will automatically render you ineligible to submit registration.
- All gift card & voucher amounts are final and will clearly be displayed on all advertisements and on registration forms.
- YOU are responsible for ensuring all details provided on registration are correct, if the information provided is incorrect your registration will be deemed invalid and a redraw will be conducted.

Selection of Winners of Games of Chance:

- All eligible entrants will be allocated a number based on order of registration.
- A random number generator will be used to select the winner by NUPSA staff and this process will be supervised by at least one (1) NUPSA Executive member.

Vouchers/Gift Cards as Gifts:

- NUPSA may choose to award gift cards or vouchers at its discretion and may offer these as prizes or as a thank you to a member for services (e.g. facilitation of a workshop).

Notification of Winners, Distribution of Gift Cards & Vouchers, Announcement of Winners:

- Winners will be notified via their university student email address within one hour of draw being completed.
- Gift Cards & Vouchers will only be sent to the recipients' university student email address.
- Winners will have the option to have their name published on NUPSA marketing content.
